1050 Bitterroot Court • Tributary

$2.75 million • 3,070 SQUARE FEET

4 BEDROOMS • 4.5 BATHROOMS

Just a short drive from Grand Teton and Yellowstone National Parks, Tributary is the ultimate residential community for adventurers. Even high-octane thrill seekers need a place to relax with family and friends, though. Walls of windows, stone accents, and a beamed ceiling lend this cabin a rustic-chic vibe, and a back deck that runs the length of the home is perfect for barbecues. Prefer to have someone else do the cooking? Head to Tributary's farm-to-table restaurant, and then take a wildlife-watching stroll along the two-mile elevated boardwalk.
